R. A. Kramer, Editor and Prop.

Entered at the postoffice at Marlinton, West Virginia, as second-class mail matter.

REPUBLICAN IN POLITICS

Friday, June 7, 1907

Cranberry Camps.

Hell Central Give me the Messenger office, I have a few items from the W. L. Company's camps.

G. W. Dolan, captain of the rod busters union was out to Buckeye on business over Sunday.

D. B. Johnson, the foreman at camp five came near having a paralytic stroke caused by the loud talk of Willie Hefner, a road monkey of Marlinton. Dr. Walker, of the Highlandian was called and rendered medical aid. We hope to see him recover soon.

The Sunday school is progressing nicely with Solomon Driverbee as bible teacher. Prof. George Scales has charge of the primary department.

Ernest Smith, the cizler and Miligan Mixer of camp five has packed his turkey with deadwood and glassware and has migrated to parts unknown. Peace be with him.

[redacted] to his
[redacted] kind
[redacted] and at

Ernest Smith, the cizler and Milligan Mixer of camp five has packed his turkey with deadwood and glassware and has migrated to parts unknown. Peace be with him.

Job Bockley has added to his collection of shrubbery a new kind of leak, sent to him by a friend at Beard. He expects to go to West Point as soon as ramp harvest is over.

Snowden Kellison, proprietor of the ice cream and lemonade parlor says business is slack on account of so much cold weather.

Buzz McCoy, an old rounder of Webster County has just arrived here and reports a new law in Webster County,—" $25.00 fine for frying ramps without ground hog oil.

Dannie Seemore is cooking at the Cranberry Central in place of Earnie Smith, the bean sizzler and is getting along nicely.

Bettie Harold the pot rastler of Cowen is assisting Kellison and Lemon, the two Milligan Mixers in the cooking department at the Highland Inn while his brother Austin is taking a vacation at Cowen Webster cooking department at the Highland Inn while his brother Austin is taking a vacation at Cowen, Webster Springs and other cities on the B & O.

Snowden Kellison the lemonade and cookie boy of this city was a pleasant caller at Ned Hines' over Sunday.

John Walker has been appointed by the high officials as captain of the ramp digging squad since our provision supply has been cut off on account of a wreck on the N. L. Co. R R.

Charles McLaughlin, of Huntersville is back with us again, and has taken the agency for hot air.

It was supposed that the W. L. Company Mill at Warrentown would be shut down on account of the absence of Ernest Smith, but at last accounts it was still running.

Lemmon and Kelley the card sharks of the Highland Inn locked up in the cellar one stallion for stealing potatoes. He will be tried about July 4th, by justice Walker.

Harry Lemon off of the the absence of Ernest Smith, but at last accounts it was still running.

Lemmon and Kelley the card sharks of the Highland Inn locked up in the cellar one stallion for stealing potatoes. He will be tried about July 4th. by justice Walker.

Harry Lemon one of the cooks of the Highland Inn was found almost frozen in the stallion bake oven Sunday morning June 2nd. but has about recovered at this writing.

Bill Gibson, of Dodd, Roane county is chief of police of our town and Snowden Kellison mayor.

Jot Buckley the bolona and macaroni mixer of the stallion camp is using leaks alt gether since the wreck on the railroad.

Mr. Ruler, chief paymaster of the W. L. Company passed through our town on his way from a fishing trip on the river. He was wet to the skin and looked like a wharf rat. Well, I guess I will ring off but will come again after pumpkin harvest.

the house of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Shumate and engaged board for an indefinite time.

Misses Susie Hevener and Woodie Hewett started Saturday for Greenbrier county to visit Mrs. Lucy Maxey.

Samuel Sutton, of North Fork, was visiting his daughter, Mrs. Jacob Cassell, and his brothers, Hubert, Sherman and George M. Sutton, last Saturday and Sunday. He was accompanied by his grandsons, Arthur Sutton and Paul Gum.

Samuel Polk will move from our midst in a few days to near Durbin where he will engage in hauling bark.

Harry Dickenson's job of work has changed hands and will now be run by Frank and Wallace Curry. William Collins and Ratliff Bros. have undertaken the skidding.

Onoto.

Mrs. H. A. Blair and children, of Marlow, who have been visiting at George Baxter's for the past week, left for home Monday.

James Patterson, wife and family, of Marlinton, spent Sunday at George Baxter's.

Isaac Waugh and his sister, Miss Lizzie, have been visiting in this vicinity for some time.

T. D. Moore, of Marlinton, was calling in this vicinity Sunday.

Arthur Hubb and Miss Lorie Gay Ward were at Fairview Sunday attending the meeting.

F. H. Haselline, of Durbin, was here last Sunday looking after his interests.

Quite a number of young people from Marlinton and Edray were at the McLaughlin spring Sunday.

Mrs. J. J. McGraw, who has been at the Marlinton Hospital for the past three weeks, returned home last Sunday very much improved.

Several of our farmers are busy with their hay whenever the weather will permit.

J. H. Clark and son, of Academy, are doing a lot of painting for Geo. Baxter.

Rev. G. W. Marston preaches on the 2nd Sunday in each month. We regret that we can't have him every Sunday.

Cranberry Campa.

The weather has been very wet for some time but at this writing bids fair for nice weather.

The general health of this place is good; all the people have returned since the fourth and are back at their positions.

Some of our good people were at Dunlevie at the dedication last Sunday and report a good time.

The cook room force at the Highland Inn will spend their vacation at Webster Springs and Jamestown.

Isaac Penstein, a jewelryman of Charleston, was up to see our good people and sold quite a bit but had to put up a hard luck spiel. Come again, Isaac, we appreciate your cunning.

While peeling bark for the Ware Lumber Co. last Wednesday, Jas. Buckhannon cut his foot almost off and was taken to the Marlinton Hospital for treatment. At last accounts he was getting along nicely.

Jesse Hughes and Lonnie Smith are putting up nice residences on Cranberry which will add to the appearance of the town now being built.

John Lynch has just returned from Jamestown and reports a nice time but rather hot.

Snowden Kellison has purchased a farm on Beaver creek of a Mr. McComb and will move to it soon.

Rastus McCoy, of Richwood, a clog dancer and contortionist, is back with us once more and is giving our youngsters some of the latest in foot shaking.

Otis and Jimmy Morrison expect to finish up their job of peeling in a few days. It is said that Jimmy has accepted a position as police on Jamestown exposition grounds.

ANDREW POLK, C. W. YEAGER, E. M. McPEAK
PRICE, YEAGER & McPEAK,
ATTORNEY AT LAW,
Marlinton, W. Va.
Prompt and careful attention given to all legal work.

J. W. YEAGER,
Attorney at Law
Marlinton, W. Va.
Prompt attention given to collections.

MISCELLANEOUS.

DR. ERNEST R. HILL,
DENTIST,
Marlinton, W. Va.
By strict attention to business I hope to gain your patronage.

A. G. WILLIAMS, G. W. DUNCAP
WILLIAMS & DUNCAP
CIVIL ENGINEERS AND SURVEYORS,
Marlinton, W. Va.
Plans or write us for information concerning maps, blue-prints, abstracts of title, surveys of railroad, water lines town sites, surveys and land lines.

ALEXANDER MILL & SUPPLY COMPANY
MACHINISTS ETC.
Plumbing, Steam Fitting Heating, Steam and Hot Water. All Kind Machine Work.
Marlinton, West Virginia

Chesapeake & Ohio Ry.
Schedule in effect June 30, 1907, subject to change without notice.
Leave Marlinton, 8.50 A. M. and 4.15 P. M.
FROM HOKEVERTE.
For Washington and New York
8.50 A. M. 10.30 P. M.
For Richmond, Old Point and Norfolk
8.50 A. M. 8.30 P. M. 10.30 P. M.
Local for Charlottesville
8.30 P. M.
For Cincinnati, Indianapolis, St. Louis, Chicago, Louisville, Nashville, Memphis and West
8.10 A. M. 10.45 P. M. 11.31 P. M.
For Charleston, Columbus, Toledo and Detroit
6.40 P. M.
Local for Huntington
11.30 A. M.

NOTICE! LOOK AT THIS.

I have been continually in the UNDERTAKING BUSINESS 35 years. I have on hand and carry the largest, finest and cheapest line of burial outfits in the county. I carry a line of solid black walnut coffins and caskets and a complete line of nice burial robes for men and women. I can furnish burial outfits anywhere along the railroad. I have a good team and wagon and can deliver when wanted. I have no rent to pay, run my own business and can save you money on burial outfits and monuments.

I am always thankful for little favors and big ones in proportion.

Respectfully,

C. B. SWECKER,

Dunmore, W. Va.